Take a look at my pets. Here is Harold, the dog. He's five. He is big and strong. He can bite strangers, so watch out! Fluffy the cat and Ara the parrot aren't as aggressive as Harold. Fluffy is three and Ara is two years younger than him.
Sometimes they play together and they can be really noisy, especially Ara. Her voice is very strong. They drive me mad sometimes.
But I love them so much! Harold is a real friend and I think that he's the most intelligent of them all. Fluffy is really cute and always helps me with my homework ☺ And Ara? I guess there is no animal more cheerful than her! She can laugh even louder than me!
