

Who is the girl showing her photo to?

How often do you take photos of yourself? Why do you take them?

Do you look the same at weekdays and at weekends?

What do you most often take photos of? Why?

Do you think you can tell someone's personality from their photo?

How does the way you look show people who you are?

What would you like to change about your appearance and why?

In what situations are you on your best behaviour?

Who would you give a photo of yourself to?

How important is it to make a good first impression?

What do you think the girl in the picture is like? Why?